Members of the school board are: Mike Klindt, Judy Slaughter, Benny Humphrey, Muriel Broce, Jim Osborn, and Bob Callaway.

Administrative board plans for area vocational school

When the idea of the Area Vo-tech school became a reality, Superintendent Monachino and the administration board spent long hours working with architects and contractors to finalize the plans for the structure.

Mr. Ward, long-time teacher at South Harrison, has been named as the Vocational Director for the new educational facility.

Part of the present faculty, as well as new staff members, will comprise the teaching force to instruct students from eleven schools.

Principal — Gerald Smith

Board member, Judy Slaughter (above) converses with Don Ward, Vocational Director. Mrs. Vickie Burns and Mrs. Mildred Loman combine their secretarial talents in helping Principal Gerald Smith run an efficient office.

Assist. Prin. — Steve Smith

Office personnel promotes friendly atmosphere

Office scenes (above) portray a friendly atmosphere as a meeting place for faculty and students throughout the day. Principals and secretaries alike give graciously of their time to enrich school life.

Outstanding member awards were given to Gloria Landes, Liz Johns, Agnes Webb, Barbara Alexander, and Teresa Preston.

"Today's Youth; Tomorrow's Agricultural leaders"

A successful year opened with the officers attending an area meeting at Chillicothe. Other highlights of the year include: parents night, Barnwarming, a mini tractor pull, and FFA banquet.

Various trips were taken throughout the year. The judging teams traveled to St. Joseph, Maryville, and Trenton. Six freshmen greenhands journeyed to Columbia to meet the new state officers. State farmers and judging teams, proficiency award winners at area level, and two delegates attended State Convention at Columbia.

As always, the annual fruit sales proved very profitable to the organization.

The South Harrison FFA Chapter officers are: Brad Bowles — President, Todd Jennings — Treasurer, Greg Stevens — Reporter, Scott McClure — Chaplain, Melvin Houghton — Reporter, Kenny Stoner — Vice President, Janice Christie — Secretary, Kenny Tomes — Sentinal, and Mr. Lee — Sponsor.

The outgoing seniors are: Randy Hulett, Melvin Houghton, Mike Folgate, Shela Sperry, Kenny Stoner, Richy Scott, Brad Bowles, Todd Jennings, and Bob Furgeson.

The junior group consists of: Bruce Provance, Jim Dinsmore, Kenny Tomes, Danny Queen, Greg Stevens, Jason McQuerry, Becky Underwood, Janice Christie, Russell Hillyard, Danny Blessing, Vickie Bonnett, Scott McClure, Gary Hall, and Rodney Tharp.

Twenty-one freshmen (top right) joined FFA this year. These Greenhands are: D. Groves, A. Mulnix, R. Mulnix, B. Hogan, T. Bridger, B. Hillyard, P. Adkins, B. Banister, M. Findley, H. Osborn, A. Arney, G. Humphrey, G. Gentry, M. Taylor, T. Shady, K. Landes, H. Thorton, L. Moody, and B. Coots.

The FTA recognized several outstanding individuals at the spring teachers' tea. Barbara Shelby, vocal director, was presented the outstanding teacher of the year award by Gail Yurth. Orville Findley, science and math teacher who retired last year, was recognized by Gloria Landes. Mr. Findley taught over thirty years.

Past president, Dixie Klindt, was awarded the annual FTA scholarship and was named outstanding member of the year. Teresa Allen presented her with a plaque. The speaker for the evening was our superintendent, Mr. Monachino, and a program of music was provided by Stephanie Cox and David Cason.

COE students enjoy actual work experience

Cooperative Occupational Education is a program designed to provide students with on-the-job training in a business of their choice.

Students attend school for half a day and commute to their jobs for the other half.

Students not only enjoy the privilege of this educational opportunity, but also the monetary rewards.

New organization sparks enthusiasm

A newly organized club, FBLA, was introduced to South Harrison this year. Although the membership is small, the students are very active and have the willingness to work toward their goals. This year's members are: (L to R) Cathy Henson, Colleen Connell, Teresa Allen, Kitty O'Grady, Steph Galloway, Rhonda Polley, Sherry Blessing, Donna Landes, Jeanna Stratton, and Marcia Blessing.

The officers (right) are: President — Marcia Blessing, Vice-President — Rhonda Polley, Secretary — Colleen Connell, Treasurer — Steph Galloway, Reporter — Sherry Blessing, Student Council Representative — Cathy Henson, and Sponsors — Mrs. Sheets and Mrs. Kelim.

Thespians act the part

The South Harrison chapter of Thespians, reorganized this year, was capably lead by Jo Summers, sponsor, and her officers: Cheryl Ray — president, Lorna Linthacum — vice-president, Valerie Doty — secretary, Mark Holcomb — treasurer, and Jay Holman — student council representative.

Several of the members actively participated in a number of speech contests. Students entered contests at Missouri Western, Maryville, Savannah, and district competition, as well as the South Harrison Speech Tournament. Of the participants, Jay Holman was particularly successful as he won third place in humorous interpretation at the MWSU contest.

Science Club glances into the future

The science club which was organized last spring is now in its second year. The members are: (front to back), Lesa Higdon, Rhonda Snead, Carol Yurth, Stacy Lee, Rick Stanley, Glen Gentry, Shonna Gannon, Julie Hiatt, Steve Dowell, Lynn Winder, Billy Martz, Allan Mulnix, Randy Mulnix, and Natalie Martz. RED CARNATIONS

Cast

Girl	Linda McClure
Boy	Glen Fitzgerald
Man	Robin Shepard

Red Carnations is a one-act play which takes place in a secluded area of a city park. The action begins with two men talking in the park. One is a teenager and the other is a middle-aged man. After several moments, a girl appears who is secretly the daughter of the middle-aged man. Following an exchange of dialogue, the young man learns that he has fallen victim of an unknown chaperone. He attempts to walk away but falls victim of a passionate kiss by the young girl and goes home with them to dinner.

Extras play a big part in the production.

The fall production, OUR TOWN, was directed by Jo Summers and her assistant, Cheryl Ray. The play takes place in Grover's Corners, New Hampshire during the early 1900's. OUR TOWN revolves around two families, the Webbs and Gibbsses, and covers events ranging from life and death to love and marriage. The plot was demonstrated with a minimum of props through the use of pantomime. The Webb family is pictured at right.

Behind the scene workers
provide Loyal assistance

A number of students contributed their help on make-up, costumes, props, and sound effects. Steph Galloway and Sam Underwood, (below) assisted on the lighting crew.

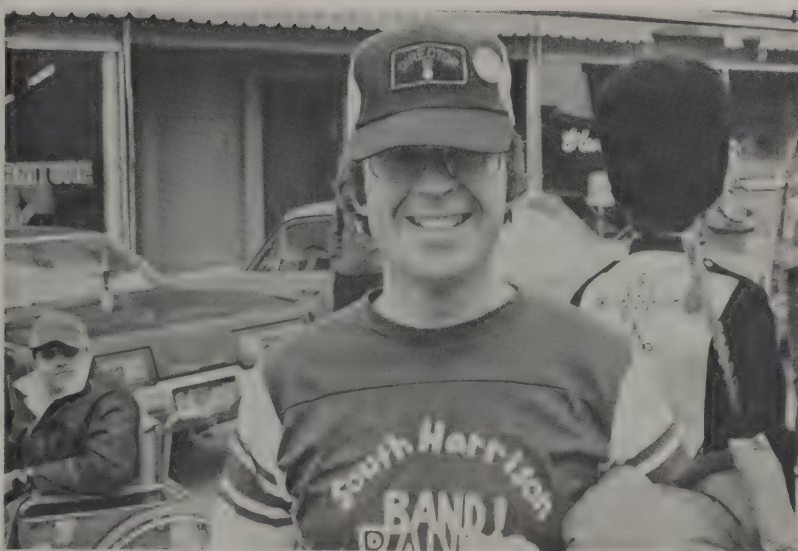

And the band played on . . .

The brass choir was formed especially for the Christmas concert and was made up from the senior high band's brass section. At upper right, these musicians are Stephanie Cox, Ed Lunsford, Charles Fleming, Richie Fine, Dean Ragan, Beckie Sutherland, Mary Nevils, Vince Shelby, Belinda Bennett, and Rick Stanley.

This year's band board members were as follows: (at right), Stephanie Cox, Rhonda Snead, Norma Snead — secretary/treasurer, Toni Cox, Beth Fleming — student council representative, Dean Ragan, David Templeton — vice president, Richie Fine — president, and Charles Fleming.

Besides serving as band president, Richie Fine is drum Major for the marching bulldog band. He was assisted this year by Joni Buckingham.

The band has been very proud of this year's pom pon girls. They fronted the band at all football games and parades and did several feature numbers during basketball halftimes.

The girls are chosen by audition in the spring, and this year's squad consisted of Sheila Watts, Becky Hatten, Melodie Overton, Serena Stevenson, Sabra Foster, and Jackie Broyles.

This year's senior high concert band consists of (seated) Norma Snead, Chris Easton, Rhonda Snead, Becky Hatten, David Templeton, Sabra Foster, Kathy Magee, Debbie Easton, Melodie Overton, Stacy Lee, Serena Stevenson, Shevonne Purvis, Cindy Booth, Jackie Broyles. Beth Fleming, Joni Buckingham, and Richie Fine.

Standing, are Mark Holcomb, Alicia Sanders, Lesa Higdon, Sheila Watts, Dorthea Walp, Toni Cox, Valerie Doty, Shona Gannan, Julie Hiatt, Ed Lunsford, Charles Fleming, Stef Cox, Rick Stanley, Belinda Bennett, Beckie Sutherland, Mary Nevils, Vince Shelby, Dean Ragan, and Mr. Newhard. Lynn Winder, absent.

The band projects "the sound of music"

This has been a busy year for the instrumentalists, as they have been involved in many activities with concerts, marching, and pep bands. The responsibilities of the pep band lie in entertaining during halftimes and between varsity home basketball games. This year, the group was student directed by Stef Cox. The marching bulldogs performed at home football games and took part in parades and marching contests.

Stephanie Cox, (at right) senior trombonist, was selected to the Missouri All-State Band for the fourth year in a row. This year she won the position of first chair. In addition to this honor, Stef was also chosen as a member of the all-district, all-conference, and NCMBB band, all for the fourth consecutive year.

Small groups enjoy performing songs of the past and present

Ensembles provide listening pleasure for all

Many long hours of intense rehearsal are behind the brief moments that students actually perform. They work hard before school, after school, and during study hall to accomplish perfection. Performances range from humor to melancholy.

Homecoming: The gala event of the year

Homecoming week brought out many different faces, mostly happy ones. The week started off with hat day and consisted of many other activities in which the students participated. During homecoming week, students and teachers alike donned their outfits to suit the special occasion. The excitement grew each day of the week in anticipation of the coronation and dance.

Interest surmounts with projects and decorations

Projects were conducted throughout the week by each class, and many of the students worked with great intensity to complete their projects.

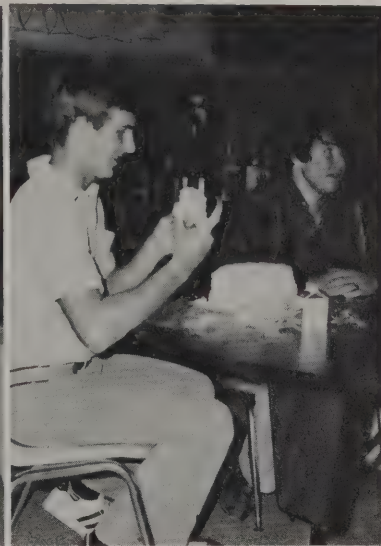

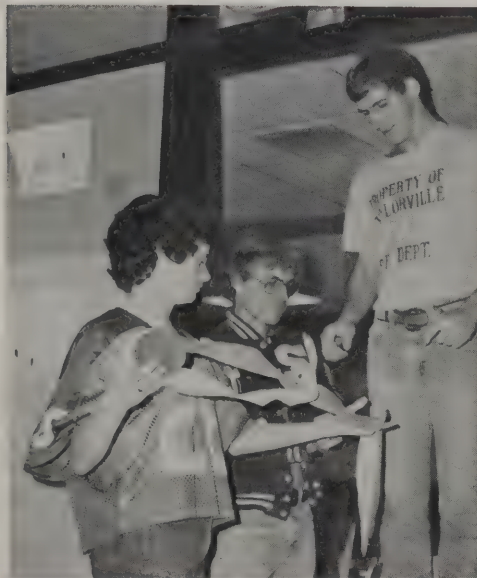

The sophomore class took first place with a job well done. The senior class also did a commendable deed by cleaning up the old high school lawn.

Teachers were also busy participating in the homecoming events. Faculty and students worked with much vim and vigor trying to express their enormous amount of spirit.

Ms. Meyer's room, cunningly decorated, won the race. Many hours of work and enjoyment were spent instituting the winning room.

Anxious moments reflect

People of all ages and all walks of life participated and helped with the last minute details in the coronation exercises. Former queen, Sandy Rebel, had the pleasure of crowning Ann Nichols.

annual coronation atmosphere

The annual "Sweetheart of South Harrison High" was sung by Vince Shelby. Stephanie Cox, representing girls' golf, was escorted by Curtis Bennett, candidate from cross country.

The featured event of homecoming: the crowning of the king and queen

rison. Linda Willis, Stef Cox, Ann Nichols, Missy East, Tammy Harryman, and Trish Bennett. Tina Miles and Eric Wagler, carried the gift and crown.

Cheerful event; Barnwarming '79

Trucks were filled with mobs of enthusiastic students as they journeyed to their destination for the '79 Barnwarming.

Participants enjoyed not only refreshments and a huge bonfire but also the experience of venturing through a hay tunnel.

Kenny Stoner, senior, and Becky Underwood, junior, were selected as king and queen to reign throughout the evening.

In spite of a few surprising events such as no heat, no electricity, and forgetting the crown and the hot dog buns, Barnwarming '79 was a success!

A night on Fantasy Island is an evening to remember

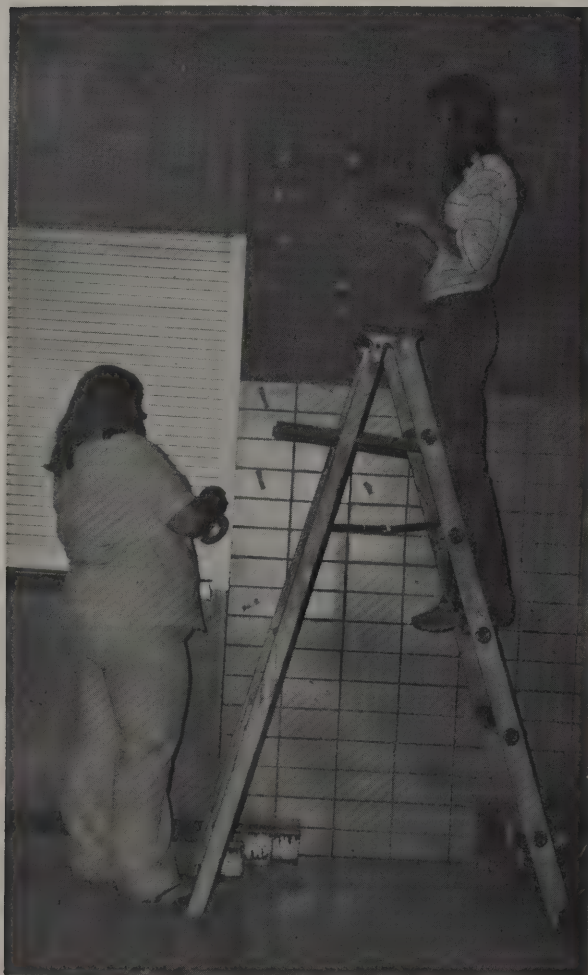

Refreshments, provided by the junior class, are served by Mrs. Mike Nichols, Mrs. Bernard McMillen, Mrs. Robin Harrison, Mrs. Keith Booth, Mrs. Robert Galloway, Mrs. Doyle Weddle, Mrs. Junior Polley, Mrs. Don Carrall, and Mrs. Shay East.

The senior class will and prophecy were narrated by Stephanie Cox and Ann Nichols.

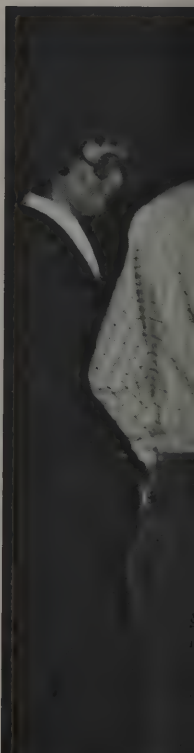

Diligent work is rewarding for juniors

The juniors worked whole-heartedly all night and arose early the next morning to put the finishing touches on their masterpiece. The walls were covered with vivid artwork, and lovely pools of water encompassed the rustic bridge. Palm trees were swaying throughout the island. Each couple boarded the special Fantasy Island Plane and soared through fluffy clouds of white. After their arrival, each person received a lei and a glass of mystic punch. As the night progressed, each fret and each inkling of distress seemed to fade away as each couple stepped into their own night of fantasy.

The Student Council Carnival is a spring activity enjoyed by both young and old. Much time and effort is contributed to the affair by Robin Shepard, Student Council President, Dan Wagler, Student Council Sponsor, and various organizations throughout the school and community.

Carnival displays fun
and excitement for all

On March 2, 1979, laughter and cries of success could be heard radiating from the gymnasium, as students and adults alike tried their luck at the games of skill and chance.

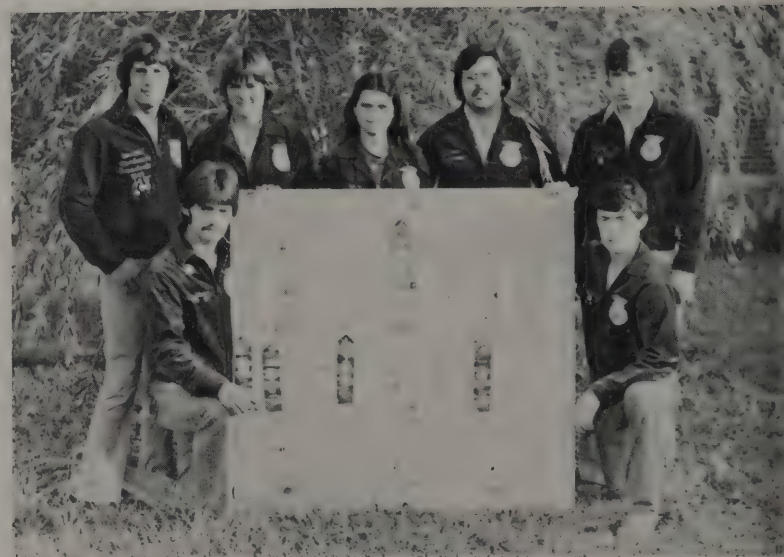

The South Harrison FFA Chapter combine efforts to be active in numerous events. Janice Christie (top left) was a participant in the FFA State Band. Tammy Parman also shared in the fun by singing in the FFA State Chorus.

One of the big money-making projects for the year is the sale of fruit to the public. The members work very hard to sort and deliver their fruit to the awaiting customers.

Junior High Cheerleaders

Cheerleaders generate our purple pride

The cheerleaders strive throughout the year to build school spirit. Homecoming is the big event of the year in which South Harrison's purple pride rings out with profound enthusiasm. The squads work all year in providing pep rallies and cheers to boost spirit.

The wrestling squad, Carlene VanMeter, Belinda Bennett, Ann Nichols, and Stephanie Galloway, can be seen at wrestling matches cheering the grapplers on to a victory. The squad is sponsored by Barb Bielby.

For the first time in three years, junior high cheerleaders were chosen. They faithfully support the young roundballers throughout the season. Those girls selected were Tricia Connell, Nancy Windom, Linda Fordyce, Stephanie Ramey, and Kim Ramey.

The varsity basketball supporters for the 1979-80 season are Alicia Sanders, Tammy Taylor, Jody Blessing, Christi Coates, Rhonda Douglas, Barbie Windom, Susie Davis, Chris Easton, Leslie Beals, and Mary Flint (absent). Barbie and Leslie served as co-captains.

The varsity football squad consists of ten girls with Connie Keller as sponsor. Those girls are Leslie Beals, Barbie Windom, Rhonda Douglas, Ann Nichols, Teri Rebel, Carlene VanMeter, Melody Fordyce, Stephanie Galloway, Chris Easton, and Tammy Taylor. Ann and Tammy are the squads co-captains.

a victorious season

A squad of four swings into action

Several awards were distributed during a pizza party at Mr. Toyne's house. Stephanie Cox was honored for being the most valuable player of the season. The most improved golfer of the year was Toni Cox. Shonna Gannon, on the other hand, received the Broken Club Award.

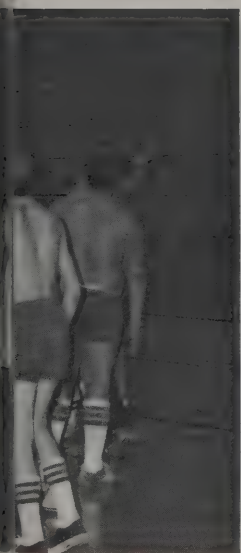

Coeducational classes stimulate interest

Physical Education is a course designed to teach boys and girls the basic fundamentals of various sports. All seventh, eighth, and ninth grade students are required to participate in this class.

After a warm-up of calisthenics, the classes often form teams for different sports. Among them are football, volleyball, basketball, softball, badminton, track, plus many more.

CLASSES

With completion of the interior work and landscaping of the grounds, the 1978-79 carpentry house developed into the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clair Parsons. The three bedroom home is located on Lorraine Street.

This year's crew is frantically working to complete the new split level home found on 15th Street.

Individuals working on this project are Dan Blessing, Greg Woodward, Paul Wiley, Clair Harrison, Ed Lunsford, Danny Queen, Ronnie Osmond, Scott Maxwell, and instructor, Mr. Clyde Hulet.

Vocational Agriculture: a program to encourage better farming methods

The Vo-Ag department offers several interesting courses in which Mr. Lee is the instructor. The classes are Vo-Ag I and II, electricity, farm management, welding, structures, construction, and advanced livestock.

Each student in the Vo-Ag program is required to participate in a project and hold membership in FFA.

Six FFA freshmen traveled to Columbia to participate in a greenhand conference. They attended group sessions and met the national FFA officers.

South Harrison was represented by Allen Mulnix, Harold Osborn, Alan Arney, Greg Humphrey, Rick Buntin, and Mr. Jim Lee.

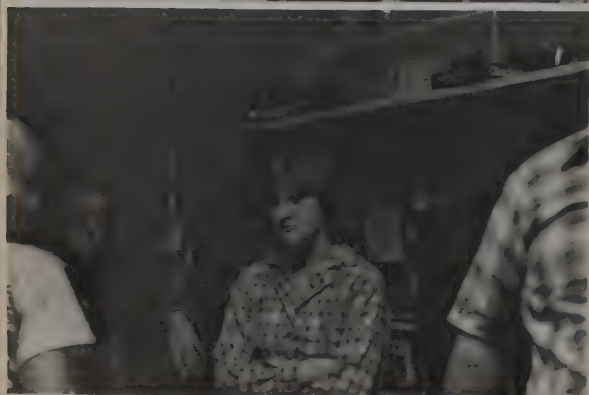

Skills for the future are attained through Home Economics

Classes offered this year include foods, Clothing I and II, Housing I and II, home nursing, child development, and family living. These courses are available to all who have completed Home Economics I.

Kenny Tones received first place in the Regional Scholastic Art Show with his picture, (top right). His work was then forwarded to New York for further judgement.

Photography class promotes creativity

Much interest is displayed by students in photography class under the direction of their teacher, Dan Wagler.

Publications class works to achieve professionalism

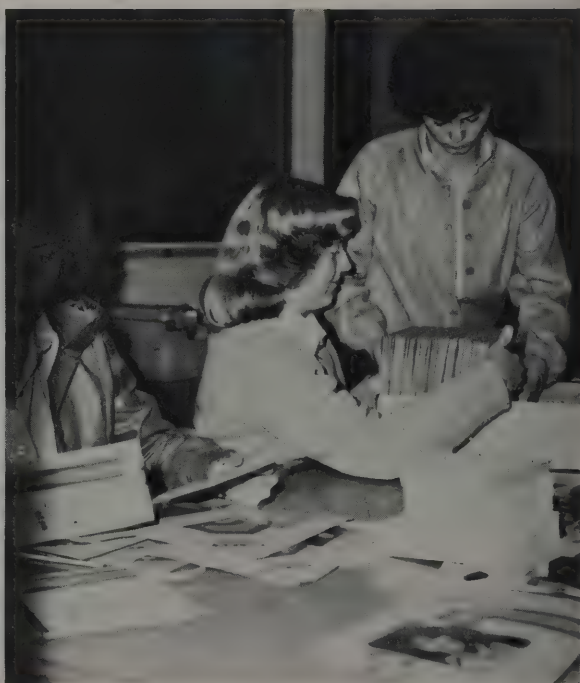

Although the student body thinks the primary task of the publications class is to work on the newspaper and yearbook, this is only a starter. During the year, such projects as distributing packet pictures, preparing programs for school functions, and printing a sizable booklet for the FFA banquet, are a big part of their responsibility.

Practical Arts provide skills

Under the wary eye of Mr. Smith, these individuals work on different projects throughout the year. One of the biggest endeavors for the drafting students is the development of the blueprints for their dream houses. Art students keep busy during class by working on paintings, pots, and drawings.

Senior government is in good hands

Liz Johns and Kenny Stoner

Kenny and Liz served as president and vice-president, respectively. The couple who works together stays together. Besides Liz, fun-loving Kenny is very interested in the work he does on his farm, and is most active in FFA as this year's vice-president.

In addition to her duties as class officer, Liz is the hard-working president of FHA. She enjoys cooking and sewing in her spare time and hopes someday to be a nurse. With her cheerful disposition, she is sure to be a success.

The senior class secretary, Stephanie Galloway, has many interests. She is an officer of FHA, a wrestling and football cheerleader, and a member of pep club and FBLA. In her spare time, she works at the Sizzler and enjoys doing art work.

Easy going Vince (Vinnie) is well-liked by his classmates. He enjoys farming in addition to his many other activities. An acid wrestler, he is also involved in both vocal and instrumental music.

Marcia and Colleen are actively involved in student council as representatives from the senior class. Colleen enjoys being with children and working at the Corner Drug. As a charter member of FBLA, Colleen hopes to be an executive secretary, someday. Marcia is a hard worker who is always ready to help out a friend. Not only does she enjoy FBLA and NHS, she also has contributed many hours to publications work.

Being a senior is: measuring for caps and gowns, ordering senior keys, and looking forward to graduation.

ALMA MATER

Once again here as school mates assemble,
We fain would lift our hearts in song,
To our high school, our dear alma mater
Let gladness and joy thus prolong.

We are proud of our lads and our lasses,
Of honors won in days gone by.
So here's a cheer for our old high school,
For our old high school our dear old high.

Here's to our classes, here's to our lasses
Here's to the lads they adore.
Here's to the seniors so mighty,
Juniors so flighty, freshies and sophomores.

Let mirth and gladness banish all sadness.
And as the days go by,
You'll find us peppy but steady and always ready,
Boosting for our old high!

Reflecting the Memory of
Our Beloved Classmates
